

In the Museum there are lots of old posters and signs for holidays or products. How many examples of old adverts can you find in the Museum? Tally them below...

---

When you get back to school you can design your own vintage sign or poster. Below, make a note of some of the phrases and words used on any you find in the museum. Sketch some of the fonts and make a note of the illustrations and the colours used. What would you choose to advertise?